Author: 890 Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas No. 33

Realese Date: Expected @@expectedReleaseDate@@

In a highly professional brief and oral argument, appellant urges that we were in error in our original holding that he was not under the Constitution of the United States entitled to the appointment of a psychiatrist, to be compensated by the state for his examination of appellant and for his time while testifying, in the event he concluded that appellant was a person of unsound mind.
