Clementine Horton was killed in an accident while a passenger in an automobile driven by her husband, Raymond Horton. The personal representative of Clementines estate brought a wrongful death action against Clementines husband for the benefit of Clementines estate and Clementines two minor children. McAllister, the driver of the other vehicle involved in the accident, was also joined as a defendant as were the insurance carriers insuring Horton and McAllister. The trial court entered a final judgment dismissing the complaint against Raymond Horton and his insurance carrier, and the personal representative perfected this appeal in Case No. 76-1622.
