JAMES L RANSOM PLAINTIFF IN ERROR V WILLIAM WINN AND ISABELLA DAVIS EBOOKS 2019

Author: United States Supreme Court

Realese Date: Expected @@expectedReleaseDate@@

This is an appeal from the circuit court of the United States for the District of Columbia. The proceedings on which the appeal was taken were had on a petition of the appellant, Ransom, in the circuit court of the District, stating that he was the creditor of the intestate for $8,113.48, a balance due on merchandise furnished, and other matters of account. An account was filed with the petition, showing the items charged, and he prayed to be made a party in a suit pending; and he adopts the allegations and prayers of the bill, and calls upon the defendants to answer. u0026amp;c.
