THIS was an appeal from the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Louisiana, sitting as a court of equity. It was a bill filed by McCoy against Rhodes and wife, under the following circumstances. On the 6th of December, 1839, Rhodes purchased in his own name from the United States, under the pre-emption law of 1838, and entered at the land-office at Ouachita, Louisiana, the following parcel of land: N. W. quarter of section 29, township 10 north, range 10 east, containing 160 20/100 acres; and paid for the same $1.25 per acre, making in the whole $200.25.
