James and Linda McNeal appeal an order of the Court of Common Pleas of Northampton County (trial court) granting summary judgment in favor of John Cappellano and James Singley (Appellees). The McNeals' amended complaint against Appellees alleges that James McNeal (Appellant) worked as a plant operator for the City of Easton (City) from 1980 to 1984, and that Appellees were his supervisors. The complaint further alleges that Appellees made Appellant a target of harrassment and ridicule by Appellant's co-workers who were supervised by Appellees. The complaint further states that Appellant was discharged by the City, through Appellees, on October 24, 1984. The McNeals seek damages using intentional infliction of emotional distress, negligent supervision (of the co-workers), and loss of consortium, as the theories of their cause of action.
